Marilyn's Story | Alzheimer's Association During the last year of my father's life, my mother was also diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease. I couldn't believe my ears when I sat across the desk from our neurologist. He was the same neurologist that had diagnosed my father 10 years earlier. I Forgave My Father, And I Don't Owe Him Anything Else The time I spent with my father after his diagnosis was brief, but it was enough to see how rapidly Alzheimer's erases a person. Less than a year in, he couldn't hold a conversation for much more than half an hour, couldn't muster the focus to brush his teeth or to say anything to me that wasn't incredibly sweet.
